

LOCAL NEWS.

NEWTON'S HOTEL.—It is due to the new proprietor of Newton's Hotel, who has had for some time past the active management of the establishment, and now will continue it, to say, that for a quiet, genteel, and excellent public house, it is not surpassed by any hotel in this section of the country. It has deservedly gained a reputation which will, no doubt, be preserved, and which it will be the duty of the landlord, if any thing, to increase and extend. It is not necessary to enumerate the recommendations which have been fully given to Newton's Hotel, both by travellers, transient visitors, and our own citizens.—Alex. Gaz.

It affords us pleasure to add our humble testimony to the deservedly popular character of this establishment; and, from a long and intimate acquaintance with its present proprietor, we hazard nothing in saying that all who may favor him with their visits will not leave dissatisfied.

TEA PARTY.—The ladies of the Fair at Apollo Hall intend to give a Tea Party this evening, (Friday,) to which they invite citizens and strangers. The table will be spread at an early hour with a variety of refreshments. The guests will be waited on by the ladies. Music by several amateurs during the entertainment.

ORPHAN'S FAIR AT CARUSI'S SALOON.—We have been requested to remind our readers that the Fair for St. Vincent's Male Orphan Asylum is now open at Carusi's Saloon, where may be had, at reasonable prices, a great variety of useful articles, as well as substantial viands, refreshments, &c. The arrangements of the fancy articles and the decoration of the room are evidences of the good taste of the young ladies, by whose hands they were made. 'Tis unnecessary for us to urge this charity upon the attention of the public, as we are sure it will be liberally patronized by everybody. The room will be brilliantly illuminated every evening, and we know of no more pleasing manner of whiling away an hour than in the promenade of the Saloon. The lovers of good music will also be gratified by the Marine Band, which has been engaged to perform every evening. To our young readers we say, we'll meet you there to-night.

MILITARY.—The Morgan Riflemen, Captain Duval, from our sister city, Georgetown, passed our office yesterday, in their new and handsome uniform. Although but a slim turn-out, the company presented a pleasing and soldier-like exhibition. They were accompanied with music by the marine band.

LAUGHING GAS.—It will be seen, by reference to our advertising columns, that C. Q. COLTON will give a grand exhibition of Nitrous Oxide Laughing Gas, this evening, at Concert Hall. The exhibitions which this gentleman has given in New York are spoken of by the papers in the highest terms. We see that he recommends the friends (?) of John Tyler to attend, because they need to be put in the humor for laughing, while the friends of Henry Clay and Martin Van Buren are expected to be there, because they are already in the humor. We have no doubt it will be an exciting, and a laughter-provoking entertainment.

THE BUFFALOES.—It will be seen, by reference to the advertisement, that the proprietors of the Buffaloes will afford our citizens an opportunity of examining these noble specimens of the Forest for a few days—they being now on exhibition on 8th street, between Pennsylvania avenue and the General Post Office.

The "Notice" published in yesterday's Standard, in reference to the conduct of a Magistrate and Police officer, signed "George Bowen," we have learned since its publication, is from a negro of disreputable character. Our apology for its insertion must rest on the impression of his being a white man, and, as was signed beneath his name, "a respectable citizen."

GAMBLING.—Mr. GREEN, the reformed Gambler, will give his sad experience of the life of a Gambler for twelve years, in two Lectures.

The first lecture will be given this evening, May 10, at the new Baptist Church, on E street. This public generally are invited to attend—the ladies especially.

To commence at half-past 7 o'clock. The time and place of the second lecture will be stated at the close of the first. may10—1t

FAIR.—A sale of useful and ornamental articles will be commenced by the Ladies of the Second Presbyterian Church on Monday next, May 6, at Concert Hall, (Tad's Rooms,) four doors west of Brown's Hotel. They very respectfully invite the citizens of the District, and strangers visiting the city, to give them a call; everything will be sold at a moderate profit. It is the first time for ten years that they have appeared before the public in this capacity, and would not now, but for the purpose of liquidating a debt of the Church, and for making some repairs on their place of worship which are actually necessary. The room will be open on Monday from 12 M. to 10 P. M., on every following day during the week from 9 A. M. to 10 P. M.

A CARD.—The ladies of the Methodist Protestant Church respectfully announce to the public their intention of opening their Fair on Monday, the 29th of April, at Apollo Hall, where they will display their beautiful and elegant collection, comprising the latest patterns of useful and ornamental articles; among which will be found handsome Silk and Worsted Embroidery, Shell and Wax Work, chiefly their own work, together with Perfumery, Stationery, Refreshments. Admittance 12½ cents.

THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN BUFFALOES will be exhibited, for a few days only, at the carriage house adjoining the Washington Stables on 8th street, between Pennsylvania avenue and the Patent Office. They are of various ages, were caught at great expense, and are rarely to be seen but by the Western pioneers. They are so arranged in a cleanly enclosure, that ladies and children may visit them in perfect safety. Admittance only 25 cents—Children half price. may10—1w B. DADE & CO.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

THE RIOT IN KENSINGTON.

SCENES OF WEDNESDAY.

The excited state of the public mind continued throughout yesterday. The topic of conversation everywhere, was of the recent riots and murders. In the heart of the city, a thousand rumors were circulated, many of them utterly unfounded, and calculated still further to inflame and irritate. We avoid repeating them here, for a great effort is required just now, to soothe and calm the angry and indignant feelings of the multitude. On visiting the ground yesterday about noon, we found crowds collected at various points, and three military companies stationed in front of St. Michael's Church and the adjoining house. The whole were under the command of Gen. Horatio Hubbell, who, stationed at well chosen and central headquarters in the vicinity, was certainly exerting himself to the utmost. The companies alluded to were—

Wayne Artillery, commanded by Colonel Fairlamb. Lafayette Life Guards, Lieut. Pearce. Independent Rifles, Lieut. Bradshaw.

The keys of the house and church were in possession of Col. Fairlamb, who had examined the church, and found no persons nor arms within it. In consequence of information received, Col. Fairlamb had searched several houses, in some of which he found muskets and ammunition, most of which had been sent to the Sheriff's office. We saw a musket in the hands of the Wayne Artillery, which contained a light load, and another which was loaded almost to the muzzle, and which would probably have proved fatal to any one discharging it.

At 2 P. M. yesterday, a company of volunteers was to be detached to a malt house about half a mile distant, in which it was reported—perhaps incorrectly—that nearly 200 stand of arms were concealed. A gentleman named Torr, who is the owner of considerable property in Kensington, behaved in a very liberal manner in furnishing provisions for the military.

The immense number of removals presented an extraordinary spectacle. In some places furniture cars were seen at every door, for 30 or 40 houses in a row. In short, the inhabitants are flying from these scenes of fire and blood, in all the panic of alarm and terror.

Meanwhile, an extensive conflagration was raging in and about Harmony court and Cadwalader street. Several houses were in flames, said to have been fired by the mob, from a feeling of revenge for the death of Mr. Hammett, who was shot from one of the windows, and from which quarter also several men were wounded, if not killed. The wind was high, and the dust, smoke, ashes, and sparks, blew in such volumes from the burning buildings, that it was difficult to get even near them on the leeward side. The engines were playing, and several fire companies were on the spot. A three story brick house would have been destroyed, but for the courage of two young men, who mounted the blazing roof, and by dint of great exertions extinguished the fire. Several frame houses near and rather to the leeward, seemed in great peril—doubtless fell a prey to the devouring element in the course of the afternoon.

The left arm of Mr. Augustus Peale, the dentist, who was shot the night before, was amputated yesterday morning.

Between 11 and 12 o'clock an Irishman was seized in his house in Cadwalader street, above Master, having two muskets in his possession. They were taken from him, and he was marched down St. John street. On his way he was beaten by the mob until he was apparently lifeless.

It was reported yesterday that several families, men, women and children, had perished on Tuesday night, in the burning houses. We could hear nothing of this on the ground.

The American flag, that was trampled upon at the Native American meeting a night or two ago, was displayed at the corner of Franklin and Second streets.

An Irishman named Rice, was shot down on Tuesday night, and as is stated, while in the act of firing upon the crowd.

An Irishman was also killed at the corner of Jefferson street and Germantown road, but not until he had discharged several muskets at the Natives. He was, it is reported, shot through the back of the head by a boy.

ST. MICHAEL'S CHURCH AND OTHER BUILDINGS BURNED.

Between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, St. Michael's Catholic Church, a large, new, and handsome edifice, was discovered to be on fire, the military at the time being in the immediate neighborhood. It was evidently set on fire by stealth, as there was neither riot nor outbreak at the time. It burnt with great fury, and by half past 3 the roof fell in with a tremendous crash, which was hailed by the shouts of the multitude. The church is now in ruins. Several houses in the immediate vicinity were also destroyed by fire. At the time the church was burning, three houses about a square to the westward of Second street were also set on fire. Between 3 and 4 o'clock the scene of conflagration was terrific. It continued throughout the evening.

MORE OF KENSINGTON. Such is the destruction of private property, that in all the streets of West Kensington small American flags, or in the absence of the stars and stripes, bits of tri-color are hung from the upper windows of the houses, to denote that its inmates are under its protection.

Up to a late hour in the night the fires were raging in Kensington, and the utmost alarm and excitement prevailed. A few guns had been fired, but probably they were merely charged with powder. The excitement and panic were fearful.

THE CITY UNDER PATROL. At the suggestion of the Mayor, the citizens met in their respective wards last evening, and appointed committees of patrol for each ward, the object being to preserve the peace of the city.

THE MILITARY. About 6 o'clock last evening a large body of troops, headed by Sheriff McMichael and Generals Patterson and Cadwallader, proceeded to the scene of the riots in Kensington, and remained there during the night.

LATER.—ST. AUGUSTINE'S CHURCH BURNED.

On returning into the city, we found an immense multitude in front of St. Augustine's Church, Fourth street below Vine, in the city. They were addressed repeatedly by Mayor Scott, but still the riot kept on, although a large body of police did their best to prevent it. At about half-past 9, the windows were dashed in. At this moment a troop of horse charged through and dispersed the crowd. They rallied, again attacked the church with fury, and forced an entrance. A second charge, and they again dispersed—and, soon after, the building was entered, and all the windows, many seats, &c., shattered.

By this time, the church was on fire, but the flames were temporarily smothered. The engines soon arrived. All sorts of cries were raised—some of applause, and some of condemnation—and the troops were applauded for their efforts by the more distant portions of the spectators.

By ten o'clock the building was in flames, which continued to burn until all the woodwork was destroyed. The firemen were present, but did not play upon the burning church, although they did upon the neighboring property. Thousands of spectators were looking on, and a body of police, some of them mounted, were parading the streets in the immediate vicinity. The alarm was sounded for a long time by the State House bell, and this, together with the great light, produced by the burning church, drew together an immense multitude.

The Mayor, with his Police, did their utmost to preserve the church. He stood on an eminence nearly in front of the edifice, and made several earnest appeals. But the crowd was overpowering, and the frequent rushes that were made, caused confusion and alarm, and rendered everything like concerted preventive action on the part of the Police utterly vain. There was, we are told, no person in the church at the time—the keys of the building having been given to the civil authorities in the afternoon. The cupola and cross fell about a quarter past 10 o'clock. The four buildings on the opposite side of the street were on fire, and were considerably injured—the heat being so intense in the immediate vicinity, that the firemen could not obtain good positions to play upon them.

The Church, we are told, was fired by a fireball of inflammable material, which was thrown into one of the windows after it had been battered in. The iron railing in front of the church was first pulled to pieces, and then the doors were battered in by scuffling. The upper part of the two houses on the south side of the church, were somewhat injured. The roof of St. George's Methodist Church opposite, was also slightly burnt. At 11 o'clock, the firemen were busily at work saving the surrounding property.

MIDNIGHT.

The principal streets are still occupied by large numbers of persons, most of them, as we believe, returning to their homes. The light of the fires in Kensington and at St. Augustine's church are yet quite visible from Third street, opposite the Exchange.—Philadelphia Inquirer of yesterday.

DORR CONVICTED.

We learn from Newport (says the Philadelphia Inquirer) that at 2 o'clock on Tuesday morning the jury came in with a verdict of guilty. Mr. Dorr summed up to the jury in his own defence.

MR. C. Q. COLTON.

At the request of several Ladies and Gentlemen of Washington, will give

A GRAND EXHIBITION

Of the effects produced by inhaling Nitrous Oxide, or what is popularly called

LAUGHING GAS!

(Called so because it usually makes those who take it laugh, and always those who look on.) AT THE ASSEMBLY ROOMS, THIS (FRIDAY) EVENING, MAY 10.

The exhibitions which Mr. Colton has given in New York, have met with unbounded success, and have been of a character to call forth the No. 1 class of Ladies and Gentlemen. (see an account of the exhibitions in the New Mirror of April 6th, among the "Town Trifles," by N. P. Willis, also other New York papers.)

A person under the influence of the Gas, is not aware of what he says or does; some will dance, others sing, others speak or repeat poetry, others laugh, &c., according to the leading trait in their character. Any Gentleman or Lady, who would prove the good disposition of a friend, or friends, is respectfully invited to bring them forward.

For an account of the effect of the Gas upon some of the most distinguished men of Europe, Sir Humphry Davy, Robt. Southey, &c., see Hooper's Medical Dictionary.

The history and properties of the Gas will be explained at the commencement of the entertainment.

To test the purity and safety of the Gas, Mr. Colton will be the first to take it.

Tickets 25 cents—children under 10 years, half price—for sale at the principal Hotels and Drug Stores, and at the door.

Doors open at quarter past 7—entertainment to commence at 8 o'clock, precisely. may10—1t

TO THE AFFLICTED!

HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE FOR THE CURE OF CHRONIC DISEASES.—The most safe and certain remedy ever known to the world for various chronic diseases, after they have reached a state, and assumed a character, hitherto considered desperate and incurable.

Chronic Rheumatism, Scrofula, Kings Evil, attended with swellings and ulcers, sore eyes, and loss of sight, to a frightful extent, have been cured. Females pining away by reason of deranged secretions, broken calculations, and obstructed menses, (monthly courses) even when attended by spasms or fits, have been readily relieved.

Dyspepsia yields without a struggle to its mild yet powerful action upon the stomach. In Catarrh, or Cough, Rheumatism, and Fistula, it never fails to cure, as we have fully proved. All diseases having their origin in an impure state of the blood and fluids, will be speedily and effectually removed by this invaluable medicine.

This tincture tends directly to excite a healthy action in the stomach, liver, lungs, and kidneys, to purify the blood and other fluids, by expelling every particle of morbid matter from the system, and therefore never fails to prove a valuable remedy for the diseases which calomel has been invariably used. Old sores and ulcers, or any chronic affection; and for the calomel disease, it is an infallible remedy. This remedy is perfectly vegetable, mild, agreeable, and safe for persons of any age, either sex, or any condition, acknowledged by those who have tried it, to be the best known family medicine.

The justly celebrated tincture creates a craving appetite, and the patient is left at liberty to indulge it. The use of this medicine will change the complexion from a pallid to a fine blooming one. After using this tincture for six weeks, a person of any age may eat anything that a child of ten years of age, in full health, could eat, without the least inconvenience.

Dr. Hampton is in possession of certificates from the Hon. Henry Clay, Col. Richard M. Johnson, Hon. John B. Dawson, of La., and many others, who have been benefited by the use of this tincture. For certificates, &c., see pamphlet.

REMEMBER! Hampton's Vegetable Tincture can be had only at the Segar Store of

H. G. RITTER, Pennsylvania avenue, between 11th and 12th streets, and at

A. G. GARDNER'S Seed Store, F street, between 9th and 10th streets, opposite the Catholic church.
